

Family gathering at Greenwoods for three pioneer islanders

Miss Winifred New is in the chair and Miss Ida New is standing by her. The two sisters were taken for a drive on Friday by their brother, Donald, of Galiano.

The two sisters are both living at Greenwoods, the new intermediate and personal care facility across from Lady Minto Hospital at Ganges. And they are thoroughly enjoying it.

"The staff are kindness itself," said Ida.

It is fitting that they should live at Greenwoods. They are not only pioneers of the islands, but they brought the New brothers to the islands in the first place. And Donald New, retired Galiano postmaster and Sparky New, almost-retired shipmaster, are two island makers of history.

Sparky was never more prominent in island affairs than when his company launched the Island Princess into the islands' transportation picture two decades ago.

They came because of Freda, explained Donald.

"I came to Mayne Island in the Joanna, from Vancouver," recalled Miss Winifred New, "That was in 1913."

TAUGHT SCHOOL

She taught school on Mayne for a time. Donald came to Mayne Island with her and once having seen the islands he had to live here.

Sparky met his wife on Mayne Island, when she was teaching there.

Their sister, Ida, has been closely connected with the islands, but still never as much a part of them as her sister and brothers.

She recalled that, in 1926, she went to work for Gideon Hicks in Vancouver, as accompanist and secretary. When he retired, 30 years later, she assumed the studio and continued her teaching of music.

The two sisters have brought a lot of history to Greenwoods and both have long memories.

All-candidates meeting

Three provincial candidates will be on Salt Spring Island on Friday evening to take part in an all-candidates meeting at Ganges.

The meeting has been called jointly by the Salt Spring Island Chamber of Commerce and the Gulf Islands Teachers' Association. Both organizations were trying to arrange a meeting and joined forces.

All three candidates for the May 10 election, Hugh Curtis, Social Credit; John Green, Progressive Conservative and John Mika, New Democrat, will be there.

Meeting will commence at 8 pm. The program will close at 9.50 pm in order to allow visitors to catch the late ferry to Swartz Bay.

Driver changes plea

Daniel R. Ellis, Ganges, was fined $450 when he pleaded guilty to driving with a blood-alcohol count over 0.08.

He appeared in Ganges provincial court on Wednesday, before Judge D.K. McAdam.

Ellis had earlier pleaded not guilty and trial had been set for Wednesday. Defence counsel Mike O'Connor asked for a change of plea.

He also lost his driver's license.

Damage to signs costs driver total of $1500

Damaging highways signs cost a Pender Island man a total of nearly $1,500 when he appeared in Ganges provincial court on Wednesday last week.

Three-fifths goes on his automobile

When a driver was explaining his problems in a local court last week, he told the judge that he was earning between $500 and $600 a month.

Of this amount, he was paying $300 in repayments and insurance for his car.

He is hoping to earn a little more at the height of the season, he added.

Esmond D. French pleaded guilty to wilful damage of 36 highway signs and five private mail boxes on Pender Island.

He was fined $500 and ordered to make restitution amounting to $987.73, totalling $1,487.73.

Court was told that a motorist reported the damage and police investigated. They traced the offending car from the tire marks.

French told the court that he was intoxicated at the time and could remember little of the incident.

"You could have killed yourself or somebody else if you were that drunk in charge of a vehicle," commented Judge D.K. McAdam.

New name for restaurant when proprietress takes over

The Ganges Crest has a new name.

It is opening as the Kanaka Place.

Kanaka Place has a new proprietor. She is Jackie Hagan.

Mrs. Hagan has been part of Salt Spring Island all her life. She has been part of the catering business all her life, but always hidden behind the scenes.

That's changed now. Jackie Hagan is the new boss at the old-established restaurant in Ganges.

She started as a cook in the Harbour House Hotel. After various other engagements she came back and was the cook at the hotel until very recently. She has also cooked at the Ship's Anchor, now Rita's Inn.

For several years she was cook at the school dormitory on Ganges Hill, previously Lady Minto Hospital and subsequently the Community Centre.

That was a good job recalls the new restaurateur. She was geared to school hours and able to look after her family while working. It was good, although the rate of pay was low.

FIRST EVER

This is her first move into the overall job of running a restaurant and she had butterflies on Saturday when she was talking about it.

The theme of the restaurant will be the Kanaka influence on Salt Spring Island.

Jackie has her roots deep in the soil of the island. She is the daughter of Ed Lumley and the late Mrs. Lumley, of Churchill Road.

New Year's Day charge not upheld in Provincial Court

Charge laid when the new year was only three hours old was dismissed in Ganges provincial court on Wednesday.

R.M. Akerman, of Fulford, was charged with impaired driving in the early hours of New Year's Day.

Const. Glen Hanna told the court that he had followed the Akerman car up Ganges Hill and that it crossed the double line four times. He also stated that it was surging and slowing down before he stopped it to check the driver.

Time was 3.20 am.

Akerman explained that he had only taken two drinks during the evening and that after a 12.30 am dinner he had drunk nothing.

He also explained that his car was suffering icing in the carburetor and was running badly causing his variation of speed. No qualified tester was available at the time of the incident and no breath test was taken at the police office.

Akerman was defended by Mike O'Connor.

Judge D.K. McAdam said that there was a reasonable doubt and that he was not prepared to hold that the condition of the driver was such as demanded a conviction.

A varied weekend

Nuclear accident, World Relief Tea, Superstar are reviewed

BY MARY C. WILLIAMSON

A strange weekend....of infinite variety! Friday, received a letter from a friend in Pennsylvania, giving personal insights on how it feels to live near a nuclear "accident". Saturday, the World Relief Tea at Fulford. Sunday, to Victoria to see another version of Jesus Christ, Superstar.

My friend in Spring Mills sends me some "letters to the editor". One woman says how she and her husband took their five children out of school and sent them to relatives in California. Another writer, from State College, refers to a statement made on April 3 by Energy Secretary James Schlesinger: "It's a question of trading Iran off against Three-Mile Island."

More food for Thought

He goes on:

Such straight-line thinking would have us believe that the solution to our insatiable energy appetite is simply a matter of increased capacity, no matter what the cost. By refusing to deal with economic and ecological realities now, we increase the likelihood of a more traumatic transition later. The American public is not quite ready to reconsider the long-standing myth of perpetual growth and the notion that Gross National Product and the quality of life are totally synonymous. But the multiplication of our dilemmas, from inflation to resource scarcity to unemployment, indicate the need to rethink our basic assumptions about life style and standard of living. Does anyone seriously believe that because we now consume twice as many kilowatts as 15 years ago or drive twice as far, that our standard of living is twice as high? Dream on until the rude awakening!

CONSUMERS PAY

My correspondent tells me "the company" has announced that the consumers will have to pay for this accident through much higher rates for electricity! How's that for this week's dose of cynicism?

So, with a sign of relief, we went to the World Relief Tea. We studied the displays, including the excellent "food consumption comparisons". I hope everyone looked at those and realized again how wasteful we are, and what a tremendous variety of food we enjoy compared to the Third World, and at the expense of the Third World. Or compared to, and at the expense of, the really poor in our own society.

The efforts made and contributed by our school-children were particularly noteworthy. I hope they will remember for the rest of their lives the list of children's rights they copied out so laboriously, and the figures on children who starve to death or are crippled, mentally and physically, by early malnutrition. Congratulations to Brenda Davies and Alice Andress of the World Development Committee, and to all the teachers concerned.

RIGHT DIRECTION

Congratulations also to Nora Chester for restoring the tea to "bread and butter only". The Oxfam teas which gave birth to the World Relief Tea were actually bread and water affairs, but at least we are heading in the right direction again!

And then on to the Victoria Operatic Society's presentation of Jesus Christ Super Star. It was good. Well sung, well staged, well choreographed, well costumed. But (to me at least) that was all. There was no magic. We, the audience, were just an audience. We were not involved. We were not "the crowd in Jerusalem". Of course some of our magic was because we knew and marvelled at the cast. But it wasn't only that. Eric Booth had more charisma, more tension, more dignity than Glen Dias. Ron Moger suffered far more torment than the otherwise first-class Kentish Steele. Which is not to take away anything from the accomplishments of the Victoria performers. But simply to add the cachet of super-excellence to ours!

INQUEST

There was a large contingent from Salt Spring Island, and we had the greatest fun holding an inquest on the ferry on the way home. One or two things we picked out as being "terrific", but they were all simply "good bits of business", or, in layman's terms, they were good theatrical effects. It could not hold a candle to the emotional impact of our presentation.

Someone said "their stage was smaller than ours". Not so. Their stage was much larger than our stage. But our performing area, thanks to the vision of David Fitchew and Art Lucs, was enlarged beyond all recognition, while the Victoria stage was rendered smaller by an elaborate and largely meaningless set. So it was our vision that was larger. Couple a larger vision with a smaller budget, and all things become possible, especially when love is the motivation.

The following Commissioners were appointed in accordance with the British Columbia Public Inquiries Act:

Dr. David V. Bates, Chairman

Dr. James W. Murray

Mr. Valter Raudsepp

Within the Terms of Reference, the Commissioners are to inquire into the adequacy of existing measures to provide protection in all aspects of uranium mining in British Columbia. In particular, they are to examine the adequacy of existing Federal and Provincial requirements in British Columbia for:

- (a) The protection of the health and safety of workers associated with exploration, mining and milling of uranium, and
- (b) The protection of the environment, and
- (c) The protection of the Public.

On completion of the Inquiry, the Commissioners will make recommendations to the Lieutenant-Governor in Council for setting and maintaining standards for workers and public safety, and for protection of the environment in respect to exploration, mining and milling of uranium ores.

A preliminary schedule of Community Meetings in June and July 1979 has been arranged as follows:

KELOWNA
Tuesday, June 5
Wednesday, June 6

CLEARWATER
Friday, June 8

KAMLOOPS

The purpose of the Community Meetings is to give the Commissioners the opportunity of understanding the local issues facing these communities that could be affected by uranium mining in British Columbia. It will also permit local organizations or members of the public an early opportunity to express their views regarding the issues that are to be considered by the Commission. The Commission plans on returning to these and other communities where required, at a later date after more technical information is available.

Public interest groups who are applying for "Participant Funding" may, if they wish, make an opening statement at these Meetings, but they will not be expected to present their main submissions until the Fall Hearings. However, anyone who particularly wishes to speak at the above Public Meetings in June or July, and who have not already done so, are requested to advise the Secretary in advance.

During the course of the Hearings, the Commissioners will make on-site inspections of uranium deposits and local environmental settings.

The locations, dates, and times of the individual Public Hearings will be published in advance in the appropriate regional and local newspapers.

Mrs. Emily Maxwell, of Fulford, passed away at St. Joseph's Hospital in Victoria on April 22. Native daughter of Salt Spring Island, Mrs. Maxwell lived in the old Maxwell house until about 15 years ago when she went to Ladner. She had lived under the towering Baynes Peak, more commonly known as Maxwell Mountain. The Maxwells came to Salt Spring in the 1860's. John Maxwell, Snr., was postmaster at Burgoyne Bay. After his death his daughter ran the post office. It was the first post office on South Salt Spring and perhaps the first on the island. Dick Maxwell grew up on the island and eventually met and married Emily Sparrow, widow of A. Douglas. She will be remembered for her mandolin with which she joined other old timers, Leon King, Mrs. A. Ruckle and others, for an orchestra. Mrs. Maxwell was responsible for the establishment of the South Salt Spring Island Women's Institute in 1920 when she and the late Margaret Reid organized the first meeting in the little school house in the valley.

TEN YEARS AGO

Sechelt Queen is coming back. The big ferry was taken off the Tsawwassen run after Christmas and has been completely reconstructed. She is expected back on the run on Saturday, to replace the Queen of the Islands. The smaller vessel was built for the islands run, but is no longer able to cope with the traffic.

Salt Spring Island Rotary Club staged its first meeting on Thursday night. Meeting saw Bob Blundell named president with Reg. Taylor, vice-president; Gordon Matthews, secretary; Ben Greenhough, Jr., treasurer and directors, Ken Whyte, T.V. Agar, Joe Nickerson and Phil Valcourt. Sergeant-at-arms is Ted Hamer.

Senior church minister on Salt Spring Island, the Rev. J. Clark Stewart, died on Wednesday at the age of 101. He graduated from McGill University in 1894.

Fresh frying chicken, whole, 49c lb. Bacon, 16 oz. can, 79c. Pacific Milk, tall tins, 4/73c. Pork butt roasts, 59c lb.

Pollution Control Board, which heard a number of appeals against the granting of a permit to Maliview Estates for a permit to discharge treated sewage into Trincomali Channel, has amended the permit. Further treatment will be required before the discharge is permitted. Opponents have been holding out for ground disposal.

Fire losses on Salt Spring Island during the past year were higher than in 1967, according to the annual report submitted this week by Fire Chief Fred Donaghy. It was his last report. His resignation as fire chief took effect on April 30. There were 26 alarms, including five house fires. One house was totally destroyed to represent a loss of over $21,000. Total fire loss in the year amounted to $30,000. Department has a strength of 19 men.

FIVE YEARS AGO

Hugh Curtis is moving fast. On Wednesday evening he addressed the Pender Islanders on the subject of the new Islands Trust Act. On Monday he will speak at Ganges in the school gymnasium on the same subject. Saturday will be a double-header. He will be at Mayne Island at 1 pm and then sail across the water to speak to a meeting at Galiano. New Islands Trust Act was introduced into the legislature last week.

Bill Sawyer is a fisherman. A resort operator on St. Mary Lake, he showed how it is done last week. He caught two bass, each of about 2½ lbs. They are the first of the season.

Salt Spring Island Presidents' Breakfast is scheduled for Saturday. Monthly breakfast is intended as a forum where the top officers of different organizations can exchange notes.

John Newton, manager of the Ganges Bank of Commerce, is moving. His place in the island branch will be taken by Charles Bazzard. Switchover will take place at the end of May.

Completion of soccer season will be marked with banquet

BY MALCOLM LEGG

This weekend features the Salt Spring Island Youth Soccer Association's annual soccer banquet, which signifies the completion of yet another successful soccer season on Salt Spring.

This year our banquet will be held on Friday in the Gulf Islands Secondary School gymnasium. We were forced into the move from Fulford Hall due to the tremendous growth in our membership this season. Doors will open at 6 pm and the banquet will start at 6.30 pm.

All the associations' players, coaches and managers will have free entry into the banquet but we will require a $2 per person entry fee for any other people to cover banquet costs.

GOOD FEAST

The meal will be potluck style with all the families bringing something. The association will supply all the meat, coffee, tea, pop and tableware - it should be a good feast.

Following the meal the association will recognize all its teams and their achievements with badges and also will award any trophies won.

Then comes the part everyone waits for, the door prizes. This year our association has put up a special door prize of four tickets to any Vancouver Whitecaps home game in 1979 (does not include travel expenses), along with all the other door prizes we have. Door prize tickets may be purchased at the banquet for ten cents a piece.

We feel it will be an evening of enjoyment for one and all as we pay tribute to the players, coaches, managers, referees and executive of our association on the fine season. We hope everyone associated with us will attend and join in the fun and tributes.

EVENTFUL SUMMER

After this evening the association can sit back and relax, for a while anyway, because we have an eventful summer ahead with:

1) S.S.I.Y.S.A. soccer T-shirts being sold for $5 (approximately - could be less) with our new soccer crest (dark blue crest on light blue shirt).

2) A soccer summer school being tentatively offered through the C.S.A. and Coca-Cola from August 13 to August 17 for $15 per player.

3) A coaches' clinic on a weekend in August to upgrade our coaches and anyone interested in coaching.

4) Purchase of new uniforms for all our teams, particularly at the intra-island level.

Who said we are taking a break? Well, a couple of months off are all we need, to prepare for next season and next year's club motto "Soccer is Fun".

We hope to see everyone at the banquet for a night of food, fun and prizes.

Tournament will prepare softball teams for season

The Salt Spring Men's Softball League opens this weekend with the Ice Breaker Tournament. The purpose of the tournament is to prepare teams for the upcoming league season which begins Tuesday, May 8.

Entered in the tournament are Salt Spring Lands, Salt Spring Cablevision, Fulford Inn Salties, G.A.S.-Driftwood, Dagwoods, Langdon Loggers and Pender Shaqua-La Screaming Eagles.

The tournament opens on Friday with Salt Spring Lands versus Salt Spring Cablevision at Fulford at 6.30 and Fulford Salties vs G.A.S.-Driftwood in Ganges at 6.30. Play resumes Saturday with games at 10.00, 12.00, 2.00 and 6.00 in Ganges and Fulford.

Semi-final play will all be at Fulford with games at 10.00 and 12.00. The Championship Final will be at 2.00.

The league starts next Tuesday with the Langdon Loggers hosting G.A.S.-Driftwood at Fulford and Dagwood at home in Ganges to play Salt Spring Lands. On Wednesday the new league member Pender plays host to Salt Spring Cablevision.

In exhibition play Langdon Logger rolled over Dagwood 16-7. Langdon Loggers edged G.A.S.-Driftwood 12-11 and Dagwoods edged G.A.S.-Driftwood 5-4 in eight innings. Salt Spring Lands defeated Dagwoods 13-11.

Minor League players number 64

Minor Softball held its first registration Saturday with 64 players signing up. Plans call for two leagues to be formed. A younger league will have five teams and be composed of boys and girls aged six to nine years old. The older league will consist of players 10 to 12 years old.

Practices and games will be on Tuesday, Thursday and Friday. The young division began practicing last Tuesday with the older division starting this Thursday after school at 3.30.

New players are still welcome to join and may do so by going to the practices. All parents are expected to help in some way. Coaches, assistant coaches, managers, scorekeepers and umpires are still needed, particularly in the older group. If everyone helps, the load will be light for all.

There is no cost for joining as play will be done as an island league.

League games will probably begin Tuesday, May 8, Driftwood was told.

slow pitch rules are virtually the same as regular softball without the domination of the pitcher, as the ball must be lobbed across the plate.

ANYONE FOR TENNIS?

BY JOAN TIERNAN

It couldn't have been a nicer day for such nice people to gather on the tennis courts at Portlock Park, Saturday, April 28. Once again our wizard, Warren Wilson, arranged the round robin tournament with his usual brilliance and, in total, we had 25 people turn out. As a result, it would seem that this column, which appears weekly, plus the coming events section are being keenly watched and read.

Rosamund Truelove visited us again from Galiano Island and we hope that tennis buffs from the other islands will also participate in any future tournaments. You are most welcome.

There were a few of us who felt a little flat but all in all there was some fine tennis being played. Here are the results of the tournament.

Wendy Smith, top women's 'A' player; Tom Butt, top men's 'A' player; Bev Unger, top women's 'B' player; and Pat Tiernan, top men's 'B' player. Boobie prize was won by Bill Banger who received a gift certificate donated by Larry Colero of the Sunshine Shop.

Next event coming up will be a Memorial Day tournament. Watch this column and coming events column for future details.

Keep your eye on the ball, folks!

Beer League to try slow pitch

The softball Beer League which began last summer will try slow pitch this summer. Two fields are available for play on Fridays in Ganges: the B.C. Hydro diamond and the elementary school diamond. A third diamond on the elementary field may also be available.

Any group of friends or individual players should go to the school grounds on Friday, May 11 at 6.30 if they wish to play.

This league is strictly for the casual, less-competitive players and is for men and women. The

GOLFING

with Pat Doherty

On April 23 eleven juniors played and Paul Cotterell won the putting competition with 14 putts. Steve Marlon was second with 15. A clinic is being held for the juniors each Thursday after school. The class is being conducted by ex-professional Gordon Hutton, so if the juniors pay attention they should improve their game beyond their wildest imagination.

In the ladies' nine-hole section, Gwen Ruckle won the hidden hole prize, and for the fewest putts on number nine hole it was Bunny Jordan, who won it with a single putt. Bunny also asked us to mention that Louise Foulis has informed her that the Annual Coffee Party will be held at Barbara Hughes' home. There will be a Fashion Show, the date is June 6, and more information will be forthcoming at a later date. This is only to get you to ring June 6 on your calendar just so you will keep that important date open.

On Tuesday, April 24 seventeen ladies turned out to play for a "Honey Pot". The winner was Audrey Smith, and Joy Tuckey was the runner-up. Meanwhile, the first team from Colwood visited Salt Spring to compete for an inter-club cup, which Colwood is donating. This will be fought over annually here and at Colwood. The visitors won the opening encounter 13-11; the return match at Colwood will be played in July, when our girls hope to make up the two points and more.

VICTORIOUS

On the same day our second team travelled to play at Cedar Hill and returned victorious, coming out on the right side of a 14-10 score. Thursday, April 26 a mixed team from Mount Brenton, Che-mainus came to play a mixed handicap team at Salt Spring. The first match ended in the visitors' favour, 13-11.

In the men's section there were two matches played in their round robin competition, Ardmore visited here, on the Saturday, and a team from Salt Spring travelled to Prospect Lake on Sunday. The results of both matches should be available next week. The search for a replacement men's captain goes on by president Jim Mayo. You are again reminded that the list for entries is on the notice board and if you wish to play in the Morris and Mouat Cup games your name should be on there, as the competitions take place Sunday, May 6, and the draw will have to be made up this week.

DEFENDING TITLE

This coming week Tom Butt will be defending the title he won last year in the Vancouver Island Seniors Golf Association competition. There are 164 golfers entered for the competition which takes place at Glen Meadows Golf and Country Club Friday, May 4. Last year Tom won the Larry McCooey Rose Bowl (low net) and we all wish him the best of luck in defence of his title.

We wonder if any other golf course has an age spread between the youngest and oldest playing members as we have here at Salt Spring. We refer, of course, to Jeffrey Neilson who is four years old. This is his third year as a member. With Ted Parsons, who is 93, there is a difference of 89 years between the youngest and the oldest.

We were very pleased to hear from his son that Ted is coming along nicely after his brief visit to Lady Minto the other week. We have it on very good authority that there is absolutely no truth at all in the rumour that Ted was shot by a jealous husband.

Umpiring clinic Thursday

For all softball players interested in the rules and umpiring or in just learning the rules there will be a clinic Thursday.

Leo Burns of the B.C. Softball Association will be conducting the clinic which will begin on the Little League diamond with positioning and anticipation discussed. That will be followed by a chalk talk; Clinic will start at 7.00 pm and will be over at 10.00 pm.

SPRING FLOWER SHOW

After an absence of three years, the Women's Institute of Pender Islands once again put on the Spring Flower Show, which for many years was a popular event.

The Show was opened by the Mrs. B. Hogarth and drew about 140 people. J.E. Boshier, from Sidney, was the judge and he complimented the Institute and the entrants on the excellent display of flowers. All categories of flowers were represented.

Natalie Nance won first prize for the total points in the children's section for ages 5-9 years.

In the adult section, Nep Grimmer won first prize with a total of 33 points. Second prize went to Hattie Zarek with a total of 31 points and Daphne Stevens won third prize with a total of 14 points.

The three tables of home baking, handiwork and plants sold out and thus raised quite a bit of money for the work of the Institute. Guests enjoyed a pleasant chat with friends and neighbours at the tea tables.

A poster competition for prizes was part of the show for the school children and the posters they had made were outstanding.

Prizes awarded were as follows: Grade 1, Natalia Nance; Grade 3, Leisa Nance; Grade 4, Teresa Hanson, 2, Cathy Ross-Smith; 3, Michael Dever; honourable mention, Michell Milton; Grade 5, 1, Freddy Sabbagh; 2, Riannon Roach; 3, Jennifer Lucas; Grade 6, 1, Tana Milton; 2, Jane Lang; 3, Kent Estell; honourable mention, Curtis Singlehurst, Robert Kent; Grade 7, 1, Michelle Sutherland; 2, Michelle Sutherland; 3, Sam Holt; honourable mention, Lea-Anne Sewell, Marian Lucas; Grade 8, Tracy Milton; Grade 9, Kim Challis.

New owners take over Handy Andy's

There is still no Andy in Handy Andy's.

Michael Testart and Ken Jones took over the Salt Spring Island business recently from Bill Chipman.

The odd job service was started about two years ago by Chipman and McGillivray.

The new owners both came to the island from Victoria about a year ago, where Testart worked for a construction firm and Jones for a janitorial service.

Handy Andy's offers a variety of services including painting, gardening, junk and garbage removal and carpet and window cleaning. They are also operating a weekly swap meet at their store on McPhillips Avenue in Ganges. They will sell any articles that people want to dispose of for a percentage of the sale price. Swap meet takes place Saturday mornings.

The previous owner, Bill Chipman, has moved to Vancouver.

Mainly Mayne

BY ELSIE BROWN

Candidates in the forthcoming elections have been coming and going during the past week.

Social Credit candidate Hugh Curtis, accompanied by Premier Bennett, made a successful landing by helicopter on farm land west of the hall on Tuesday morning. They were greeted by a fair turnout of islanders including two people who had composed parodies on some well known tunes. Won't You Go Home Bill Bennett was well taken by the premier.

Provincial NDP candidate John Mika was accompanied by his wife and federal NDP candidate Jim Manly on Thursday afternoon. The Silver Maynes bus trip the same day affected the attendance. Issues affecting islanders were discussed.

Rev. and Mrs. John Rodine entertained at a Buffet Supper at "Twin Totems" Friday evening, April 21 when members of Community Church gathered to bid farewell to Bill and Ada Bowman who are leaving shortly for Brentwood Bay, Vancouver Island. An enjoyable social evening followed. MaryBelle Jarman sang one of her lovely gospel hymns, accompanied by Nita Flick at the piano. John Rodine entertained with stories relating to the Bowmans' early courting days and some of their island experiences. Lil Rodine made a presentation on behalf of the assembled guests to the well known couple, and good wishes in their new home were extended to them. Bill and Ada have a daughter, Janis and a son, William and four grandchildren.

A bus load of Silver Maynes members had a most enjoyable trip to attend the Annual Tulip Festival at Oak Harbour, Whidby Island last Thursday. They left Mayne on the 7.40 am ferry, catching the bus at Tsawwassen. They passed fields of tulips of every known colour on their way, stopping at Oak Harbour Community Park for lunch. They drove south to Mulkiteo on the southern tip of the island where they boarded a ferry to Mt. Vernon. Vi Hamilton, who was convener for the trip, reported that it was a perfect day for the outing with all the trees and shrubs in bloom, making it a colourful scenic tour.

Visiting Clare and Vi Hamilton at Bennett Bay have been Clare's sister Mrs. Ray Bowman from Saskatchewan; brother and sister-in-law, Cecil and Eileen Hamilton of Burnaby and Bob and Irene Lodge of Regina.

Mayne Island School will have the addition of a library by next fall. The classroom presently used by grades three, four and five will be converted for this project. The request for funds to buy 800 books has been approved.

Congratulations to Rooney and Mable Johnston of Fernhill Road who welcomed a new granddaughter recently. Proud parents are Sam and Ann Johnston of Harris, Sask.

Inadvertently omitted from last issue was the mention that Galen deWolf was in charge at the Gaol over the Easter weekend. Her family have been long-time commuters for many years. Her help at the museum was very much appreciated.

Joyce Mitchell will have a show of her paintings at the Airport Inn, Delta B Room, Richmond, Friday, May 11, 7 pm - 12 pm; Saturday, May 12, 1 pm - 12 pm; Sunday, May 13, 1-10 pm. Ron will feature restored antique furniture.

Coming Events

What's happening at Salt Spring Elementary ?

BY IAN JUKES

With singleness of mind the masses steamed from the landing craft and into the waiting transports. Slowly the convoy moved out. Their objective lay several kilometres away in the heart of a strange and foreign land, but already the travellers could feel something in the air: tension, anticipation, excitement.

Quickly, time passed until suddenly, there they were, the tents. The transports quickly unloaded; everything was made ready, and off they charged, into the "Greatest Little Show", a kaleidoscope of colour, sounds, and smells.

Several hours later, after puppets, circuses, mime theatres, musicians, jugglers, and participation dramatics, not to mention oodles of wholesome, nutritious foods, the trek was reversed and back we hurried to catch the ferries and return to relative tranquility.

DAY TO REMEMBER

Moving a whole school (and a whole district) is not a matter to be taken lightly, yet all went off without enormous problem. Thanks to Larry Holbrook, Supervisor of Instruction, and Tom Watson, principal, for all their organization. Certainly it was a day teachers and students will remember.

Otherwise, a very busy agenda: last Wednesday over 400 children from Fernwood, Gulf Islands Secondary, and Salt Spring Elementary ran and walked three kilometres to raise over $115 for crippled children. What a sight it was as they rumbled through town in what had to be the biggest mass participation exercise held by the schools in some time.

BIG, RED BEAR

Looking down the hall some students were seen with jaws agape as a big red bear trundled by - no it wasn't the Great Root Bear, it was the RCMP Safety Bear, here to teach traffic and general safety to the primary students. I was tempted to order a teen burger.

In the gym the action is hot and heavy as playoffs have begun. After a great struggle the Flyers and Bruins were eliminated, leaving it up to the Canadians and Leafs to battle for the final berth against league champion Islanders.

House activities have been suspended temporarily as we prepare for the Vancouver Island Track Meet on May 25. In our closest activity yet the Broncos won the field ball title edging out the Colts by two points. Overall, the Stallions lead the Mustangs by one point.

SAFETY TEAM

Friday, a very timely event, the B.C. Hydro Safety Team arrives to spend an afternoon with our students. This being great kite weather and what with the kite accidents in Powell River last month, this visit could not have come at a better moment.

Finally, remember: our Spring Carnival is next Friday. Many parents, particularly Lynn Matthews and her organizers, and many students, have done a great deal of work to make this a success. Plan to spend Friday afternoon, May 11 with us.

An election preview

Labour strife or labour strength Socreds will likely be returned

BY FRANK RICHARDS

Premier Bennett comes to Salt Spring Island for luncheon and opposition supporters gauge the extent of the crowd with him, in order to assess his support. Dave Barrett travels from town to town and the noise of the reception is measured as a standard of popularity.

It is likely that none of these things will have an influence on the final result.

There is a province-wide weariness of Social Credit. The Victoria government has done little to cultivate friends; and quite a few things to lose support.

But how many of those disaffected towards Social Credit will support the New Democrats? The NDP would hope to see a sweep across. As they might. But it is less than likely.

There are two counts against the NDP.

LEERY OF SOCIALISM

Many British Columbians are leery of socialism. It is an evil monster to many and they see it as a threat. This aspect of the New Democratic chances is a diminishing risk. A decade ago there was more concern. Two decades ago there was stark fear.

The greater mark against the New Democrats is more likely its close link with organized labour. In a province riddled with labour strife you have to be either a labour fan or an opponent.

The supporters of unrest are convinced that they are restive as a last resource and that their every move is made in desperation. The critics don't share those sentiments and the labour picture scares them away.

This question of labour's strength may well prove to be the key to the May 10 election. Organized labour has expressed strong criticism of the Social Credit regime. Its leaders have spoken out against that government and they have urged support of the NDP.

WHAT WEIGHT DOES IT CARRY?

How much weight does it carry? Will the voters of the province rally to the call of the union leaders and vote solidly for NDP? If they do and if their numbers are great, then the result of the election is clear before we go to the polls.

There are two questions to be answered by every forecaster of the election. The first is the weight behind the union critics. Can they move mountains? The second is how great is the fear of labour strife?

To many people in this province, the coupling of politics and labour means a spiral of wages approved by a weak government to the detriment of those on pensions or other fixed incomes. It also carries the connotations of increased militancy under the sunny gaze of a partisan government.

THE MAN IN THE MIDDLE

That man in the middle: does he favour the military precision of a Socred government drill or the easy-moving, unaggressive socialist regime?

And having evaluated those two philosophies, probably using any one of a thousand different, illogical yardsticks, the man in the middle must decide whether he wants the rule of the market place to govern his affairs or the champion of the worker. Right now it's anybody's guess.

When the election was called it seemed unlikely, at a casual glance, that the Socreds could be threatened. By this time, that possibility is very much in the open.

The election could result in a minority government for either party.

Neither the Liberals, who appear to have collapsed completely as a provincial entity, nor the Conservatives, whose sudden build-up stopped as suddenly as it started, are likely to materially affect the outcome.

MARGINAL SOCREDS

While my guess would be a Socred government with a marginal majority, it is only a guess. And like all guesses, it could be way out.

And my second guess would be that neither John Mika, the only strong challenger, nor John Green, Stephens' right-hand man, can oust Hugh Curtis.

Curtis has the odd distinction of being about the only man in the Cabinet who hasn't spent part of the recent sessions sucking his feet. I can't see him licked!

Young musicians meet

BY MARNIE DUFF

There are a number of young musicians on Salt Spring Island who are getting a marvellous opportunity to come together and share their music with others. On Sunday afternoon we gathered at the home of Ariadne Sawyer and heard some of the children accompany each other with their instruments.

The program included a short piece played together by Brett Marshall (piano) and Raven Duff (flute), followed by a solo piece by each of these children; Kerra Downey (cello) and Celle Strikwerda (piano) accompanied each other. We were delighted with Brian Davies, aged two, piano duet with Celle; Barbara Graham played a piano piece; and Geoff Hall and Raven Duff combined flute and piano.

This group is working slowly towards the rather exciting goal of simple ensemble playing and being able to accompany each other in an enjoyable situation. All performers at this gathering were between the ages of two and 11 and it indicated that there is much talent to be found in the young people on this island. Anyone wishing for more information about these monthly get-togethers please call Mrs. Sawyer at 537-2125.

They are meeting twice a month

Next meeting of the Salt Spring Parks and Recreation Commission will be held May 14. The commission has met once a month in the past but lately there has been a greater amount of business to get through.

Meetings are held in the elementary school library at 8 pm.

Alihipporhinocrociligator, Gumboot Lollipop

Performance, makeup workshop at Pender

There was some clowning around at Pender School Friday when Victoria entertainer Dolly Hopkins brought the Alihipporhinocrociligator and Gumboot Lollipop to Pender Island.

Children of all ages got into the act during the performance and makeup workshop sponsored by the Arts for B.C. Schools section of the B.C. Touring Council and organized by a Parent Teacher Club committee.

The Alihippo opened the show with a song and dance number following which he hesitantly accepted tokens of appreciation ("it's a stone; it won't bite!") from admirers and engaged in friendly banter with the audience.

The timid critter then managed to accomplish a rather awkward metamorphosis into the clown Gumboot Lollipop. Had it not been for the primary grades' expertise in "how to dress" and their willing assistance, the witless Gumboot might still be writhing turtle-like on the floor trying to negotiate an obstreperous costume.

When the makeup workshop began, the audience literally leaped into action. After Gumboot had demonstrated the basics on one willing model, the rest showed no inhibitions. They transformed themselves and each other into butterflies, space creatures and their favourite members of "Kiss".

Even the teachers and some parents got into the act.

Motorists on Pender that afternoon may well have wondered at the roaming rainbow which exploded upon the roads at three o'clock. Well, it has often been said that Penderites are no ordinary folks!

Barnyard Socialism

Once upon a time there was a Little Red Hen who scratched about and uncovered some grains of wheat. She called her barnyard neighbours and said, "If we work together and plant this wheat, we will have some fine bread to eat. Who will help me plant the wheat?"

"Not I," said the Cow. "Not I," said the Duck. "Not I," said the Goose. "Then I will," said the Little Red Hen and she did.

After the wheat started growing, the ground turned dry and there was no rain in sight. "Who will help me water the wheat?" said the Little Red Hen.

"Not I," said the Cow. "Not I," said the Pig. "Equal rights," said the Goose. "Then I will," said the Little Red Hen and she did.

The wheat grew tall and ripened into golden grain. "Who will help me reap the wheat?" asked the Little Red Hen.

"Not I," said the Cow. "Not I," said the Duck. "Out of my classification," said the Pig. "Not I," said the Goose. "Then I will," said the Little Red Hen and she did.

When it came time to grind the flour, "Not I," said the Cow. "I'd lose my unemployment insurance," said the Duck.

When it came time to bake the bread, "that's overtime for me," said the Cow. "I'm a dropout and never learned how," said the Duck. "I'd lose my welfare benefits," said the Pig. "If I'm the only one helping, that's discrimination," said the Goose.

"Then I will," said the Little Red Hen and she did. She baked five loaves of fine bread and held them up for her neighbours to see.

"I want some," said the Cow. "I want some," said the Duck. "I want some," said the Pig. "I demand my share," said the Goose.

"No," said the Little Red Hen. "I can rest for a while and eat five loaves myself."

"Excess profits," cried the Cow. "Capitalist leech!" screamed the Duck. "Company fink," grunted the Pig. "Equal rights," screamed the Goose. And they hurriedly painted picket signs and marched around the Little Red Hen singing, "We shall overcome." And they did.

For when the Farmer came to investigate the commotion, he said, "You must not be greedy Little Red Hen. Look at the oppressed Cow. Look at the disadvantaged Duck. Look at the underprivileged Pig. Look at the less fortunate Goose. You are guilty of making second-class citizens of them."

"But-but-but I earned the bread," protested the Little Red Hen.

"Exactly," the wise Farmer said. "That is the wonderful free enterprise system; anybody in the barnyard can earn as much as he wants. You should be happy to have all this freedom. In other barnyards, you would have to give all five loaves to the Farmer. Here you give four loaves to your suffering neighbours."

And they lived happily ever after. Including the Little Red Hen, who smiled and clucked, "I am grateful, I am grateful."

But her neighbours wondered why she never baked any more bread.

ELECT SOCIAL CREDIT,

Wealth for the Workers not the Government

Fund's donation boxes are stolen

Child in the picture was a victim of theft on Salt Spring Island last week. The local representative of the Save the Children Fund, Jean Knight, reports that a number of the fund's donation boxes have been stolen. She wonders if the thief was "really that hard up".

"We, who are so lucky to live in Canada, and especially on Salt Spring, with our welfare and unemployment monies, good clean food and free clothing store run by the Community Society, surely do not find it necessary to stoop so low as to steal money intended to help so many unfortunate, homeless and starving children," said Mrs. Knight.

She also had some advice for whoever took the money.

"If ever you are so tempted again, please think of those more unfortunate than yourself."

dollars and that it would depend on how "broad-based" the project was.

BROADEN USE

A swimming pool, suggested Borsman, would broaden the use of a recreation centre. It would also, he observed, provide a facility for both Greenwoods residents and old age pensioners.

The costs of a pool, he said, could be cut considerably if the required showers and toilets were shared with a recreation complex.

"It's a more exciting concept than just craft rooms and a theatre".

Commission chairman Glenn Woodley said he was waiting to see a compilation of the space requirements that was being undertaken by what has been known as the TIDSA committee. He suggested that the pool could be optional and included in the centre at a later date.

Borsman agreed that the community couldn't afford the pool at present.

In closing, he urged that the commission set up a committee to look at the proposal and its possibilities.

"We're the only people who can initiate it," he said.

A committee of three was named; it will include Olive Clayton, Hugh Borsman and Glenn Woodley.

(For more on community centre, see page seven).

Over $500 collected by Red Cross

The annual Red Cross campaign held on Mayne Island has been completed with a total of $514.50 collected.

Canvassers who contributed to the success of the drive were Jean Beaumont, Renete Waterlow, Nancy Sutton, Dora Wood, Irene Jeffries, John Dought and Elsie Brown.

A Red Cross spokesman expressed thanks to island residents who gave "so generously to this worthy cause. Their support was very much appreciated."

approximately 700 square feet in area. Cable landings are where underwater transmission cables come up out of the water and on to the overland transmission towers.

MANPOWER INSTEAD?

When Storrie was asked why the job could not use manpower instead of chemicals, he said one reason was that there isn't 100 per cent mortality to weed growth unless a chemical is used. He also said there were safety considerations. The areas to be treated are already double-fenced for the public's safety, he said, and that if anyone other than Hydro employees were engaged to do the job, they would have to be supervised.

The matter came up at last week's meeting of the Capital Regional Board. The board decided to ask the Pesticide Control Branch and the Inter-ministry Pesticide Control Committee to have posters advising of spraying programs placed in the areas concerned.

Regarding the notice in the Nanaimo Hydro office, director Jim Campbell remarked that it could be useful for those people who commute between Galiano and that office.

Chairman Murray Glazier said it was probably to warn workers in the Nanaimo office not to go to Galiano.
