

Salt Spring Island Church Monthly

SEPTEMBER, 1903.

Mr. Joel Broadwell, Jr., and his bride are at present residing at Crofton.

The Bishop is expected to return from England in time for the Diocesan Synod in October.

Willie Hamilton, of Fulford Harbor, has made a quick recovery after his operation for appendicitis, and is already back on the Island.

Mr. Cecil Abbot arrived back from the Klondike about the first of last month, having greatly enjoyed his trip.

Dr. Baker's little girl Ruth injured herself jumping about the first of last month and has been laid up ever since.

Mr. Frank Scott met with what might have proved a very serious accident in his barn a month ago. He was unloading hay when the fork snapped and he was thrown back violently to the ground, his head just missing a large stone.

The Home Sunday School picnic at Fulford Harbor, August 5th, passed off most pleasantly. It was a lovely day, and from 150 to 200 must have been present. Two good tables, with seats, were extemporized under the trees, and were laden down with all the good things brought in the baskets. Dinner was at one o'clock, then two hours for the sports, then the Sunday School prize-giving followed by the prizes for the races, etc. Lemonade, cakes and candies to finish with at 5:30 p.m.

Twenty-one dollars was collected for the sports at the Fulford picnic, and prizes were awarded as follows: 100 yds. race—1 Bertie W.; 2 Arthur W; 1 Eddie L.; 2 Newcombe L.; 1 Florence L., 2 Lily L.; 1 Mary G., 2 Jessie M.; 1 Roger W., 2 Edith L. Bicycle race, men—1 King, 2 Ruckle. Three-legged—1 Bertie and Hubert, 2 Alvin and Paterson. Tub race—1 Alvin, 2 Mike. Sack race—1 Mike, 2 Bertie, 3 Alvin. Jumping—1 Percy H., 2 Basil C., 3 Chester M. Tug-of-war—Burgoyne school.

Home Sunday School prizes were gained as follows: Upper First Class—1 Florence Lee, 2 Arthur Walter. Lower First—1 Helen Wright, 2 Eliza Whims. Upper Second—1 Basil Cartwright, 2 Gustave Johnson. Lower Second—1 Elizabeth Lundy, 2 Eddie Lee. Upper Third—1 Percy Horel, 2 Allen Cartwright. Lower Third—1 Ruth Baker, 2 Mary Tolson. Bible searching—Martha Whims. Catechism—Ida Raynes.

Mr. George Borradaile left for England August 8th.

The infant son of Mr. Griffiths died of cholera infantum at Véstivius Bay, August 2nd.

Miss Legh and Miss Crimp left for England August 1st.

Received for CHURCH MONTHLY since August 1st: Geo. Booth, 50c.; Walter Dukes, $1; C. Abbot, 75c.; Mrs. Cotsford, 50c.; Corp. Harvey, 50c.

The annual show of the Islands' Agricultural and Fruit Growers' Association takes place in the Agricultural Show Grounds, Ganges Harbor, Wednesday, September 30th.

The candidates for the coming Provincial election to represent North Victoria and the Islands are said to be Mr. Paterson, of Saanich, and Mr. H. W. Bullock, of Salt Spring Island.

The present school teachers on the Island are: Central, Miss Black; Ganges, Mr. Cooke; Burgoyne, Miss Renwick; Beaver Point, Miss Edwards; North Salt Spring, vacant.

The corner stone of the Salt Spring Island Creamery was laid by Mrs. W. E. Scott on Saturday, August 1st. Quite a large number of interested persons were present. The walls of the building are already completed and the roof nearly finished; a store shed for feed has also been erected. It will not be long now before the creamery is in operation.
