

Salt Spring Island Church Monthly

AUGUST, 1904.

A sale of the late W. H. Harris' effects was held at his late residence July 16th.

Home Sunday School classes will re-commence the first week in September.

The Prize Catalogues for the Agricultural Show at Ganges Harbor are now ready for issue.

Home Sunday School picnic at Cushon Lake, Tuesday, August 2nd. Sports and races. All invited.

Mrs. E. Rosman, who has been ailing for some weeks, was taken to the Jubilee Hospital July 22nd.

The S.S. Charmer will bring a large excursion party from Vancouver to Ganges Harbor, Monday, August 1st.

Received for CHURCH MONTHLY since July 1st: Miss Offerhaus, 35c.; E. Lee, 35c.; E. G. Borradaile, 50c.

Mr. Fred. J. Bitancourt will provide meals on Show Day this year. Hot dinner from noon to 2 p.m., 50 cents. Lunch at any time, 25c.

A handsome Celtic cross of granite, over six feet in height, has been placed over the grave of the late Mr. Ross Mahon by members of the family, in St. Mark's cemetery.

Received since July 1st towards Agricultural Hall debt. J. J. Welch, $2; H. Kelly, $1; Anon, $1; Walter Norton, $1. Toward new prize list, C. W. Cundell, $2.50.

Through the kindness of a gentleman at Ganges Harbor, copies of the Illustrated London News and the London Graphic are circulated now among some twenty families.

There will be both Water Sports and Land Sports at our Agricultural Show, September 21st. The special prizes offered for stock, produce, etc., amount to about $300 in value.

The Co-operative Butcher Shop, across the road from the creamery, is open Monday, Wednesday, Thursday and Saturday, from 9 a.m. to noon. Mr. C. W. Cundell in charge.

The Yukon party are getting a few nuggets and keeping up their spirits. Snow fell to the depth of six inches July 5th. Their fare lately has been "Apple Snow" and mountain sheep.

Of the children attending the Home Sunday School, 57 can repeat the Lord's Prayer; 44 can repeat the Apostles' Creed; 27 can repeat the Ten Commandments. Total scholars, 62.

St. Mark's Ladies' Guild will meet at Rev. E. F. Wilson's house, Friday afternoon, August 5th, to arrange for a sale of work, which will probably be at "The Maples" before the close of the month.

A number of new buildings have been going up lately. Mr. Collins, Mrs. Mouat and Mr. R. B. Young have each erected a large barn. Mr. J. Norton is putting up a fine new residence. Mr. T. M. Jackson is intending to build shortly at Fulford Harbor. Also a new resident, Mr. Soule, who has purchased the H. N. Rogers property, is putting up a house close to the sea.

The Secretary of the Islands' Agricultural Association will be glad to dispose of membership tickets to those interested in the coming show. Members' wives and children under 18 years of age do not require separate tickets in order to enter things for exhibition. As the amount of Government grant depends on our membership, every effort should be made to increase the number. The annual fee is $1.

King Edward, when asked by the German Emperor to accompany him on board his yacht the Meteor for a yacht race that was taking place at Kiel on Sunday, refused, saying that he preferred to spend Sunday as "a day of rest." So struck was the Emperor by the resolve that he decided to scratch the Meteor out of the race, and the two monarchs spent the day quietly on the Hohenzollern.

The new carpet, purchased with money raised by a concert, has been laid in the chancel of St. Mary's Church, and a very neat chancel rail erected, the latter being the gift of Mr. A. R. Bitancourt. The whole of the interior of the church has been stained, and there is a shelf at the door with a good supply of prayer-books and hymn-books. The congregation may be congratulated on the great improvements made.

The Home Sunday School prizes to be distributed on the day of the picnic (August 2nd) are as follows: Upper First Class—1, Florence Lee; 2, Martha Whims. Lower First—1, Eliza Whims; 2, Willie Whims. Upper Second—1, Eddie Lee; 2, Basil Cartwright; 3, Lily Lee. Lower Second—1, Harold Rogers; 2, Myrtle Wakelim; 3, Newcombe Lee. Upper Third—1, Pearl Norton; 2, Dora Rogers; 3, Ida Johnson. Lower Third—1, Edith Gardner; 2, Ivy Gardner; 3, Grace Norton. Special prize for Church Catechism, Maude Scott. Special prize (Teachers' Bible) for Bible Class, Arthur B. Walter.
