

Salt Spring Island Parish and Home

MAY, 1899.

The Ladies' Guild will meet at the Post Office, Friday, May 5th.

The stained-glass window, formerly in the chancel at St. Mark's Church, and now replaced by the Scott-Smedley Memorial window, has been removed to Fulford Harbour, and will be put in St. Mary's Church.

A meeting of the Farmers' Institute was held at the Public Hall Tuesday, March 28th. Mr. J. R. Anderson, of the Agricultural Department, was present and addressed the meeting.

Mr. Cecil Abbott, lately from England, has arrived on the Island. His brother Edwin is at present at the Jubilee Hospital, down with typhoid fever, but is recovering, and hopes soon to be back at Ganges Harbour.

The concert on Easter Monday at the Burgoyne Bay School-house was a decided success. There was a large attendance, and, the sum of $23.95 was netted. It is to be used in the erection of a bell-tower for St. Mary's Church.

As neighbours have objected to the driving-shed, that it will spoil their view, the incumbent and churchwardens of St. Mark's Church have decided not to proceed with it, and the money contributed to purchase lumber, etc., will be returned to the donors. St. Mark's being built on a bare sloping rock, there was no other spot near the church available, except the one selected.

At the Easter Vestry at St. Mark's Church, April 11th, Messrs. Edward Walter and F. L. Scott were re-elected Churchwardens, and Messrs. Ed. Walter and A. C. Reddie (since declined) were appointed delegates to Synod. A vote of thanks was passed to the Ladies' Guild for their assistance in church work. The financial statement showed: Receipts, Ladies' Guild, $10; subscriptions, $85.40; offertories $157.03; total, $252.43; expenditure, stipend, $173.90; insurance $10; Mission Fund, $38.93; Widows and Orphans, $3.90; Foreign Missions, $2.55; New Westminster fire, $23.15; total, $252.43.

The Easter Vestry at St. Mary's Church was well attended and passed off very harmoniously. Mr. W. Hamilton was appointed clergyman's warden and Mr. J. Akerman re-elected people's warden. It was decided to have regular collections for the Mission Fund during the year and to contribute $3.50 towards Synod assessment. Financial statement showed: Subscriptions, $41; offertories, $1.65; total receipts $42.65; expended, stipend, $15.20; church repairs and insurance, $17.30; Mission Fund $5.50; Foreign Missions $4.65; total, $42.65.

The Diocesan Synod meets in Victoria June 28th and 29th.
