

Salt Spring Island Church Monthly

NOVEMBER, 1903.

Miss Mouat is now school teacher at the North End School.

X The creamery is not yet in operation, the machinery not having arrived.

There will be morning service at Beaver Point School, Sunday, November 29th.

We enter this month on our ninth year of publication, and subscriptions keep increasing.

Mr. Wright and family are leaving the Island, having purchased land near Vancouver.

George C. Bittancourt, of this Island, died in St. Joseph's hospital, October 8th, aged 25.

X Mr. John Norton and his son, Francis Norton, have gone on a trip to New York and Boston.

At the election for Parliament, October 3rd, Mr. T. W. Paterson was the choice of the people.

A nine-year-old child of Mr. Williams, Beaver Point, was badly injured by a bush fire, October 1st.

Mr. Ward is making an extensive addition to his bungalow, and will have a very nice residence when completed.

Notice the new advertisements, and the old ones too, and give your patronage to those who help to support our paper.

Mr. Jackson, of Vancouver Island, has purchased the Shepard property on Fulford Harbour, and will build in the spring.

Messrs. Smith and Halley have moved into their new residence on Ganges Harbour, formerly the property of Mr. J. Norton.

Received for CHURCH MONTHLY since October 1st: S. Cundell, 70c.; J. J. Akerman, 85c.; A. Walter, 75c.; Mrs. Maude, $2; F. Raynes, 50c.

Miss Going, honorary secretary Protestant Orphans' Home, begs to acknowledge with many thanks 8 sacks of fruit and vegetables from St. Marks' Church, Salt Spring.

The Diocesan Synod was held in Victoria, October 21st.

There will be a Directors' meeting at the Agricultural Hall at 1:45 p.m. Tuesday, November 3rd, followed by a general meeting of the Association at 3 p.m.

Rev. E. F. Wilson offers a Bagster's Teacher's Bible with notes and concordance to any person on the Islands answering most fully and correctly (on paper) the Bible questions given by Gerald Blunt, during the half year, beginning with this month.

Saanich obtained first prize for district exhibit at the Victoria show this year, Chilliwack second. There were only three entries—Okanagan being the third. Our Islands' show must enter the field again next year, and try to win the laurels a second time.

HOME SUNDAY SCHOOL.—First Class. (See also page 314.) Genesis, chapters 44, 45, 46. (1) How was Joseph's dream of the sheaves fulfilled? (2) How did Judah try to save Benjamin? (3) Did Joseph really mean to hurt Benjamin? (4) What made him weep? (5) Did Joseph forgive his brothers? (6) What is said about waggons? (7) Why did Jacob's heart faint? (8) What vision did he have in the night? (9) What is said of the Land of Goshen? (10) By what name were Jacob's descendants known? Second Class—(11) What is said of Joseph's silver cup? (12) Why did the brothers turn and come back? (13) What made them afraid? (14) Why did they rend their clothes? (15) Why did Joseph send all his servants out? (16) What did he tell his brothers? (17) Did he not say it was all God's doing? (18) What message did he send to his father? (19) Was he glad to see Benjamin? (20) Did they all come to live in Egypt?

The Islands' Agricultural Show took place on the show grounds, Ganges Harbour, Wednesday, September 30th. It was a lovely day, and there was a large attendance. Owing, probably, to the elections, the show was not as good as usual, the number of entries in most of the classes being far below the mark; nev-
