Diary or Journal — a wayfaring Kanaka

Imagine what it would have been like to be a Kanaka, leaving your home, being on a vessel for a long time, arriving in a place where you do not understand the language, do not have the type of food you are used to eating, having to do jobs you may or may not have tried before.

Write a diary or journal about your voyage starting with your departure, the trip, your first impressions upon sighting the Pacific Northwest, your problems/hardships in settling, and your joys!
